

GOVERNOR LONG'S CHANCES.

HIS AVAILABILITY FOR A CABINET POSITION DISCUSSED IN CANTON.

SENATOR LODGE TALKS OVER THE NEW-ENGLAND SITUATION WITH MAJOR MCKINLEY.—MR. BLISS WILL NOT HAVE A PLACE IN THE CABINET.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Canton, Ohio, Jan. 14.—New-England's probable representative in the Cabinet was discussed for a couple of hours to-day by Major McKinley and Senator Lodge. Senator Lodge came to Canton at Major McKinley's request, and he left here early this afternoon for Washington. Major McKinley is considering the availability of ex-Governor John D. Long, of Massachusetts, for a Cabinet appointment, as has been said in these dispatches, and he desired to have additional information from some responsible source in Massachusetts. Senator Lodge said after the conference: "We discussed the New-England situation and, of course, talked about Governor Long. The people of our Commonwealth think very highly of him, and I do not know of any one else in Massachusetts who is being seriously considered in connection with the Cabinet."

"Your name has been frequently mentioned as a Cabinet possibility," was suggested.

"I am not a candidate for any place whatsoever. I prefer to be a Senator from Massachusetts rather than a Cabinet officer."

It is pretty clear that the indications point strongly to ex-Governor Long. His appointment would please the party leaders of his State, and he would be cordially endorsed by both of the Massachusetts Senators. Major McKinley knows ex-Governor Long, and has always had a high opinion of him. He thinks he is not only a fine lawyer and a man of party spirit, but that he is, as well, the possessor of great executive ability. Unless there is some change in the conditions which obtain to-night, ex-Governor Long will doubtless be the New-England member of the next Cabinet.

General William F. Draper, who has been thought of as a Cabinet possibility, desires to be appointed Ambassador to France, and there is no probability that he will be invited to accept a Cabinet portfolio, nor is it certain that he will be sent to Paris, though he is pretty sure to receive some handsome foreign appointment.

In talking about ex-Governor Long to-day, Major McKinley and Senator Lodge did not discuss the question of a particular portfolio. If he is appointed to the Cabinet he will be Secretary of War or of the Navy, or Attorney-General. It is believed he is admirably well fitted for any of these places.

Ex-Governor Long has not yet been invited into the Cabinet, but the chances are that the next invitation to become a member of it will go to him or to Judge Goff, though, as was said some weeks ago, Major McKinley is not a man who does things hastily and he is in no hurry about making up his Cabinet. He has made the more important appointment, that of Senator Sherman to be Secretary of State, and the rest of his task, with the exception of the work of selecting a Secretary of the Treasury, will be comparatively easy.

Major McKinley appointed Senator Sherman because he seemed the best equipped man in official life for the place, and he has already received more than fifty letters and telegrams congratulating him upon his selection. He has been selected by the Department of State without any reference as to who his successor would be and without consultation with any one. Major McKinley has at no time sought to influence him in favor of Mr. Hanna or any other. There has been no discussion of the appointment of Mr. Sherman and the appointment of his successor.

Governor Bushnell is free to name any one he chooses to succeed Mr. Sherman. The choice of Mr. Sherman was made solely with reference to his availability for the high office he has been invited to fill. The private stories about an effort being made to get Governor Bushnell to promise he would appoint Mr. Hanna to succeed Mr. Sherman are not only false, but without foundation. Governor Bushnell is absolutely untrammelled.

A report from New-York which credits Mr. Bliss with the assertion that he is not a member of Major McKinley's Cabinet is interesting, for it expresses the exact situation. Mr. Bliss was a member of the Cabinet of Mr. McKinley. The New-York member of the next Cabinet, if there is to be one, has not been selected. The assumption in certain quarters that Mr. Bliss will be selected for the next Cabinet is not warranted. There seems to be no desire on the part of the President-elect to select a New-York man to the Cabinet, and the income of more than $20,000 a year for the Cabinet will be from the Empire State.

To-night there is quite a good deal of talk about General Sherman. He is mentioned as a Cabinet possibility, and there is mention of J. S. Fessenden. It is not owing to any development in the political situation in New-York that Mr. McKinley announces he will not be in Major McKinley's Cabinet.

A representative of C. F. Kendall & Co., of Chicago, received this evening an order for the services of Major McKinley. He will make use of him in Washington. They are three in number—a brougham, a landau and a cabriolet. The vehicles will be richly, but quietly, finished. The interiors will be of dark green cloth and morocco and the body painted green with black stripes. The mountings will be of silver.

General H. V. Boynton, of Washington, was one of Major McKinley's callers to-day. He had a long and pleasant interview with the President-elect.

MR. SHERMAN STARTS FOR CANTON.

HE SAYS THE QUESTION OF HIS BECOMING SECRETARY OF STATE IS NOT DECIDED YET.

Washington, Jan. 14.—With regard to the morning dispatches announcing positively the acceptance by Mr. Sherman of the State Department portfolio that Senator said to-day to a representative of the United Associated Presses: "You say for me that that matter is not at all decided. More than this Mr. Sherman would not say."

CORNELIUS N. BLISS'S DECLINATION.

Cornelius N. Bliss yesterday set at rest all doubt as to the report that he had declined to accept the office of Secretary of the Navy tendered to him by Major McKinley. To a reporter of The Tribune who saw him in his business office in the afternoon Mr. Bliss said:

"I have declined today to make any statement about the reports which have been telegraphed from Canton, but I will say, in order to put a stop to further talk, that I am not to be a member of the Cabinet. As to the why and whereof of my remaining out of the Cabinet I will say nothing."

Any information further than that I am not to be a member of the Cabinet will have to come from the other end of the line."

Some of the friends of Mr. Bliss who are in a position to know the reasons he has for declining a Cabinet place have said that the state of his wife's health and his unwillingness to place his large business interests even temporarily in the hands of others prevented him from accepting the offer. He has said that, as a member of a firm deriving a large income from the sale of a number of years, Mr. Bliss might easily be tempted to leave his business, but he has found that in business habits and does not wish to break away from them. The acceptance of a Cabinet place would mean that Mr. Bliss would practically abandon his business.

Major Strong, when asked yesterday what he thought of Mr. Bliss's decision not to become a member of the Cabinet, said: "I am very sorry to hear it. Mr. Bliss's declination is greatly to be regretted."

GENERAL R. A. ALGER ARRIVES HOME.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 14.—General R. A. Alger arrived home from Washington this afternoon. Asked if he had any assurances from Major McKinley as to his appointment as Secretary of War, General Alger said:

"I know of the work of my friends, but have not heard a word directly or indirectly from Major McKinley on the subject. I will say that Senator Sherman spoke very kindly to me in the interview I had with him."

The general refused to discuss the subject further. He declined to say whether the subject of Cabinet appointments had been touched on during his visit to Senator Sherman at Washington.

WHO WILL SUCCEED SHERMAN?

MARK A. HANNA BELIEVED TO BE THE MAN, THUS LEAVING A SECOND TERM AS OHIO'S EXECUTIVE FOR GOVERNOR BUSHNELL.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 14.—The announcement that Senator Sherman is to become a member of President McKinley's Cabinet has awakened interest in political matters at Ohio's capital. Governor Bushnell, who will be called upon to appoint the successor of Mr. Sherman, has long been recognized as a candidate for the United States Senate in 1898, when the regular term of the coming Premier in the Cabinet expires.

It is conceded that the person appointed to the unexpired term will have the advantage for the regular election, and this will necessarily place the Governor in an embarrassing position, unless he declines to become a candidate for re-election as Executive of Ohio instead of entering the contest for Senator.

There are some who assert that Governor Bushnell, being recognized as a member of the Foraker faction, will refuse to appoint Mark A. Hanna because of the latter's adherence to the opposing element of the party. It is, however, believed that this assertion is well-founded.

There is good foundation for the statement that the elements of the party arrived at an understanding, and that Mr. Hanna will be appointed as the successor of Mr. Sherman, leaving a second term to Governor Bushnell without question. This seems to be a plausible explanation of the situation, and there is believed to be no foundation for the statement to the effect that C. L. Kurtz, chairman of the State Committee, will receive the appointment as Senator.

JUDGE GOFF REFUSES TO TALK.

HE IS SAID TO HAVE ADMITTED, HOWEVER, THAT HE IS TO BE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 14.—Judge Goff, who is holding United States Circuit Court here, would not talk with newspaper men regarding the reports connecting him with Major McKinley's Cabinet. It is given out, however, from a trustworthy source that the Judge has admitted that the attorney-generalship had been offered to him, and that he would accept it.

TWO RUNAWAY SCHOOLGIRLS.

THEY LEFT A WESTCHESTER INSTITUTION—FOUNDED BY A POLICEMAN ON AN ELEVATED STATION.

Two sixteen-year-old girls, who had run away from the Nazareth Industrial School at Bronxville, Westchester County, were arrested yesterday by Magistrate Wentworth, at the Harlem Court, yesterday morning. The girls, Emma H. Cummings, daughter of William H. Cummings, a commission merchant at No. 29 Washington-st., this city, living at No. 128 Bergen-ave., Jersey City Heights. The other is Margaret H. Wilson, whose parents live at No. 47 Beekman-st., Boston. The girls were found by Policeman Bowden, of the East One-hundred-and-twenty-sixth-st. station, on the elevated railroad station at Third-ave. and 129th-st. yesterday morning. They said they had come from White Plains to take servants' positions in the city, and that they could go no further, as they had no money. They added that they were almost famished, having had little or nothing to eat.

The kind-hearted officer took them to a neighborhood restaurant and gave them a hearty breakfast. In the restaurant the girls became communicative, and acknowledged to him that they were runaways. They said that they had been for some time inmates of the Nazareth Industrial School, which is in charge of Sister Elizabeth, the Mother Superior, and four teachers. They were in the school when they were taken to the Nazareth Industrial School, which is in charge of Sister Elizabeth, the Mother Superior, and four teachers. The girls in the school, they said, were the servants of the teachers, and were obliged to do all the manual work of the institution. The food was absolutely inedible, and consisted of very dry and unpalatable articles of diet.

On Wednesday afternoon, the girls said, they determined to run away. They took their clothes and went to the cellar to pick up their things. They took a trolley-car to West Farms, and, after walking around for a time, they reached the Nazareth Industrial School, which is in charge of Sister Elizabeth, the Mother Superior, and four teachers. ILLINOIS MACHINE SMASHED.

MADDEEN FORCED OUT OF THE SENATORSHIP RACE.

DAVID T. LITTLELAW WITHDRAWS—THE COOK COUNTY CAUCUS INSTRUCTS FOR CONGRESSMAN LORIMER.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 14.—The Cook County caucus to-night instructed for Congressman William Lorimer, of the 11th District, for United States Senator. The delegation is a unit, and there is no opposition to Lorimer, twelve in number, bolted the caucus. This complicates the situation still further, and throws the whole matter into the general caucus, which will probably be held to-morrow. Shanahan, of Cook County, is for Hitt, but the Mason men think he will get in the bandwagon rather than see the machine candidate succeed.

Madden said to his friends to-night that he had been betrayed. He asserted that Tanner, Hertz, Jamieson and Lorimer have never been sincere in his support, and that they have used him as a plaything for the purpose of overthrowing him in the eleventh hour for Lorimer. At this afternoon's meeting of the machine men, Madden was urged to withdraw in Lorimer's favor. He left the meeting, however, and in an hour had withdrawn in Mason's favor. Mason has not enough votes to make him the caucus nominee, but he is strong in the country districts and his friends believe to-night that he will yet win. They claim sixty-nine votes in the caucus for him. Sixty-four are necessary for a choice in caucus.

The Senatorial fight reached white heat in the Capitol to-day. The collapse of the Madden strength had been foreshadowed since early morning by the desertion of the machine by nine Cook County members, notably Representative Nohe, who is chairman of the House caucus and was supposed to have been elected in the interests of the Chicago Alderman. Just before 8 o'clock to-night the white flag of surrender was raised by Madden in a letter withdrawing from the race and capitulating in favor of his chief opponent, ex-Congressman William E. Mason, of Chicago.

The withdrawal of Madden was quickly followed by similar action on the part of David T. Littlelaw, who also retired from the contest in favor of Mr. Mason. This left the ex-Congressman by far the leader of the other active candidates. The machine men, however, are not so sure. Samuel W. Albertson, before the withdrawal of Madden and Littlelaw, fifty-nine votes were claimed for Mason by the anti-Madden committee of Chicago citizens, who came here to compass his defeat.

The surrender of Madden was forced by the realization of his followers in Cook County that the machine had not power to make him a United States Senator. When this fact was driven home to wavering Madden men, they broke from the control of the Cook County organization.

Ernest G. Schubert, the defeated Cook County candidate of the machine for Speaker, who was the first to withdraw, said that he had been urged to do so by the machine men. Speaking for the twenty-four members who had stood by him in the Speakership fight, he gave notice to the Alderman that he would not longer control the Cook County delegates. Acting on the suggestion of Representative Schubert that the Cook County men should get together and agree on some man who could be nominated, a secret caucus was held at the Hotel Hamilton, immediately after the Madden flag was lowered to agree on a course to be pursued. The claim was made that the caucus was held in the freed Madden votes and that Cook County would unite in his support rather than let the Senatorship go to the country.

The House and Senate Joint Committee on this morning held a session to discuss the Republican caucus until to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The caucus will probably be held in the Supreme Court room in the State Capitol.

THE CONTEST IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

CONGRESSMAN PICKLER THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR.

Pierre, S. D., Jan. 14.—The Senatorial fight has narrowed down still further to a contest between Kyle and Loucks, with chances apparently about even. It is said that Kyle has lost ground. It was estimated at the start that his adherents numbered more than fifty. None of his friends now claim more than thirty. The Republicans last night selected Congressman Pickler as their candidate for United States Senator.

MR. PRITCHARD LIKELY TO WIN.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 14.—There is no change whatever in the Senatorial situation to-night. Unless something unexpected happens, Senator Pritchard will be re-elected next Tuesday.

SHE CONFIRMS THE ENGAGEMENT STORY.

HOWARD GOLD, ACCORDING TO MRS. J. W. DAYAN, IS TO MARRY HIS DAUGHTER, KATHERINE CLEMMONS.

San Francisco, Jan. 14.—Mrs. J. W. Dayan, mother of Katherine C. Dayan, who has just returned from a visit to her daughter, said to-day: "My daughter is engaged to marry Howard Gold, and has been for a long time. It would be foolish to deny it, but we dislike the notoriety which the announcement brings. In deference to the wishes of Mr. Gold, she has given up her profession. Not that she is not a very capable girl, but any prejudice against the theatrical profession, but only because he feels it to be unnecessary for her to continue in it."

"No date has been set for the marriage, and I am not at liberty to give an opinion as to whether it will be celebrated here."

THE TOM BOY GOLD MINE.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR ITS PURCHASE BY THE ROTHSCHILD SYNDICATE.

F. L. Underwood, vice-president of the Tom Boy Gold Mining Company, said yesterday that the mine had not been sold to the Exploration Company, of London, which is the other name for the Rothschild syndicate. Negotiations looking to a sale were in progress, he added, and might be closed in a few days. Information from another source was that $100,000 had been offered for the mine, while the owner held out for $250,000. The present owners acquired the mine for $100,000. The company has a capital stock of $2,000,000, divided into 20,000 shares. The mine is in the San Juan district of Colorado. Hamilton Smith, an American engineer, has examined the mine for the Rothschild syndicate. Henry Bratton, came from London to conduct the financial negotiations.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 14.—In the House yesterday the bill for the reorganization of the St. Louis Police Department was introduced by Mr. Lusk. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 10 nays.

Buffalo, Jan. 14.—Edward Jacob, convicted of the murder of Charles Carrington, was sentenced to-morrow to imprisonment for life at hard labor in Auburn Prison.

Schenectady, N. Y., Jan. 14.—About 9:30 last night a fire broke out in the factory of the Prudential Life Insurance Company, which is situated on the corner of Broadway and Hudson street. The fire was caused by a defective fuse. The loss is estimated at $100,000. The company has a capital stock of $1,000,000, divided into 10,000 shares. The company is one of the largest in the world.

Pittsburg, Kan., Jan. 14.—Harry Spencer, a native of Nebraska, twenty-two years of age, hanged himself by a bed cord from a bolt head in his cell in the State Prison at Pittsburg, Kan., this morning. His body was found on the floor of his cell. The prisoner had been in the prison for three years.

As evidenced by Custom House statistics, the imports in 1906 of G. W. Mumm's Extra Dry aggregate $1,000,000. Its new vintage, now being imported, is truly remarkable for quality as well as natural dryness, without being heavy.—Adv.

OUT GO FOUR PRISONERS.

ANOTHER EXODUS FROM THE LUDLOW STREET JAIL.

ONE OF THE MEN RECAPTURED—ALL WERE LOCKED UP ON FEDERAL CHARGES—THEY SAWED THE BARS OF THEIR CELLS AND ESCAPED BY WAY OF A NEXT-DOOR HOUSE—THE SHERIFF CALLED AWAY FROM A SHERIFF'S JURY DINNER.

There was another exodus from Ludlow Street Jail last evening. By way of surpassing, at least in point of numbers, the famous escape of the three postoffice robbers, Allen, Kiloran and Russell, four Federal prisoners sawed their way out of the prison, climbed to the roof of an adjoining tenement-house, and walked down the stairs of the house. One of them was caught as he came out on to the street, but the other three were last seen going north in Ludlow-st., and are still at large. The fugitives are Peter Mass, William Post, Michael Egan and George Polycarinos.

The escape was made about 5:45 p. m. At that hour Mrs. Goldstein, who occupies the rear tenement on the sixth floor of No. 76 Ludlow-st., left her room for a few moments. On her return she found a man coming in the rear window from the fire-escape. The man rushed by her and downstairs, she following with cries of "Thief!" and "Police!" which were taken up by other tenants. Max, which were taken up by other tenants. Max, which were taken up by other tenants. Max, which were taken up by other tenants.
